THE PRESIDENT IS WORRIED

Held a Conference With House
Leaders This Morning.

DELOME IS MUCH CONCERNED.

The Situation in Washington Over
The Morgan Belligerency
Resolution.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Jan. 19.—President McKinley this morning had a conference with House leaders on the narrow escape from being forced to act on the Morgan belligerency resolution which was brought to the front by De Armond.

The admitted force of the Cuban sentiment in the House told the President that it is doubtful if action can be much longer staved off. Mr. McKinley is worried over the situation. State Department officials who insist on war with Spain immediately following the adoption of the Morgan resolution, are urging the House members to stand firm. Delome is much concerned over the existing conditions in the House and called on Secretary Day this morning to ascertain if there was any danger of early action.

It is thought the members will follow their advantage and push the issue at every possible opportunity.

TAR AND FEATHERS.

Possible Variations in the Mormon
Meetings.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Winston, Jan. 19.—Postmasters E. H. Wilson and R. W. Belo, of this city and Salem, will hold over until February 1st, an arrangement of this kind having been agreed to by the new appointees, Col. P. H. Lybrook and W. P. Ormsby, who have not as yet filed their bonds and received their commissions.

The Mormon elders, Ensign and Williams, are provoking considerable popular wrath and there is talk of tar and feathers. They have not as yet preached any obnoxious doctrine, but there is much indignation prevalent that they should be permitted to preach here at all. Rev. W. A. Lutz yesterday published in the Journal an exposure of Mormonism which stirred the elders to much resentment, and they will today deny the exposure in toto, calling upon the divine to read certain biblical references which they claim prophesies the finding of the Book of Mormon. A long and warm discussion is likely to be inaugurated, and the different pastors will probably institute a war of denunciation from their respective pulpits.

The Cora Van Tassel Co. played to a crowded house at the Armory last night in "Camille."

CURRENCY REFORM.

Secretary Gage Did Not Appear Before
Committee.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Jan. 19.—Secretary Gage did not attend his hearing before the House committee on banking and currency today owing to a slight cold accompanied by hoarseness. The hearing will proceed tomorrow. Ex-Secretary Fairchild was heard further, the general purpose being to bring out the probable effect of the proposed currency legislation. General Warner, president of the bimetallic league; Representative Hartman and several other silver leaders were present.

DORA CLAY STILL.

Willie Bryant Gets Himself in Print.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Valleyview, Ky., Jan. 19.—Willie Bryant has issued a signed statement in which he denies that he had any intention of eloping with Dora, the child wife of General Cassins M. Clay. He also denies having had any trouble with Leroy Kelley her brother over her. He states however that he is prepared to defend himself.

Practising Every Night.

There are eleven characters in the drama "Cherry" besides the two policemen and a number of firemen. There is the sturdy workman, captain of the Eagle Hose company, kind hearted man, but one whose life and character has been poisoned by his hatred of the married class. His wife, a thrifty, gentle woman, is one of the most interesting characters in the play.

Cherry, their daughter, is the leading character and the heroine of the drama. She is queen on every occasion and the plot centers round her from first to last. Then there is the sprightly young aristocratic beauty, who is a fair type of the confident lover, and the love-sick young man who mopes about with a sing-song drawl in his voice and always afraid Miss Cherry will snub him. There are other interesting characters who will claim your attention when you see the play.

The company is practising every night for the rendition of this interesting play on Thursday night, January 27th.

Found Murdered.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Buffalo, Jan. 19.—Kate Clark, the common law wife of Ed Clark, a grain scooper, was found murdered in her room in the Yellowlock block this morning. She was beaten to death with a chair during the night. Clark is missing.

Crossed Electric Wires.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Stamford, Conn. Jan. 19.—Crossed electric light wires in J. H. Lee's saloon started a fire this morning. The flames quickly spread to the adjoining buildings and the top floors of these were gutted. The loss will reach $75,000.

The Runaway Today.

It is an every day occurrence now, and the wonder is that somebody has not been seriously hurt in some of the frequent runaways witnessed on our streets.

Today about two o'clock Mr. S. S. Halthcock's horse was standing hitched to the buggy in the rear of his owner's store on Davie and Sycamore. In some way he rubbed the bridle off, discovered that he was loose and dashing up East Sycamore he turned into South Elm and cleared every vehicle on the street, crossed the railroad and turned into Asheboro street without an accident, followed Asheboro until the junction with East Lee was reached. Here the buggy was left fastened between a telephone pole and a fence and the horse with part of the harness dangling, made his way home and stopped. The damage to the buggy is only slight.

BRIGHTER FOR THE STRIKERS.
Dissensions Among Mill Owners Helping Their Cause.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New Bedford, Jan. 19.—There is dissension and recrimination among the mill owners today and the cause of the strikers is growing brighter. Angry words passed between Andrew Pierce and some of the other mill treasures and managers. It is believed that Pierce will be forced to grant the demands of the strikers by the large stockholders and directors. The strikers believe they will have a speedy victory.

Hill at the Head.

By wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Albany, Jan. 19.—Ex-senator David B. Hill has called a meeting of the democratic leaders from the different parts of the State for the purpose of discussing the democratic situation and to secure control of the democratic party.

Will Fight the Order.

The Raleigh correspondent of the Charlotte Observer says: The Bell telephone company will fight in the courts the order of the railroad commission reducing the rates of telephone rentals. Exceptions to the rule are filed. In these it is plainly stated that the removal of the Wilsons as commissioners was unlawful. Attorney Strong, of the Bell company, says:

"You may observe that it reasonably appears that we are fighting the Wilsons' battle, but the company only intends to take whatever advantage may be derived from the Wilsons' fight and it will act with all respect to the present board and give the latter all the facts as to telephone properties in North Carolina which the board may desire and of which the company may have knowledge."

German Postponed.

The german which was to have been given this evening as published in yesterday's paper has been postponed owing to certain unforeseen circumstances.

WHO WILL BE JUDGE?

Rumors Rife as to Who Will Succeed
Judge Dick.

A Washington special to the Raleigh Post says:

Washington, Jan. 18.—The contest for the vacancy in the Western District created by Judge Dick's resignation, has opened up lively. The woods have emptied themselves on Washington. Moody, Ewart, Smathers and Lusk, of the Western Reserve, with Judge Douglas, of the Supreme, and Adams and Green, of the Superior Court bench, are all "mentioned." Judge Furches is also spoken of by some friends. It is believed however that the contest will narrow down to Col. Boyd and Judge Ewart. The rumor today is that the President expressed a desire to appoint Judge Ewart, as he served in Congress with him. If this is done, it will be strictly a personal appointment on the part of the President, and not one that will be satisfactory to the Republicans of the district, if what most of them here say represents the district. There is some excellent timber in Western Carolina for this position, but it is said this will be greatly ignored in case the report of the President's preference is true.

The Republicans here would not listen to the appointment of Judge Douglas, as that would give Governor Russell an opportunity to fill the vacancy, and they all object to this. It was the Governor who also stood in the way of Senator Pritchard's appointment, as the administration was not willing to risk the Governor's appointment of Pritchard's successor. The appointment will be made in a day or two.

A SHREWD SWINDLER SAWED

The Bars of His Cell in Two and Escaped.

HAD FOUGHT WITH INSURGENTS.

And So Goodby to Mrs. Nack—Says
She Welcomes Punishment And
Will Be a Model Prisoner.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Jersey City, Jan. 19.—William H. Straight a member of fashionable society clubs here and a swindler to the tune of two or three hundred thousand dollars escaped today from the Gregory street police station. He sawed the bars of his cell window in two and crawled out. His escape is beyond the understanding of the police. He had his breakfast with the other prisoners about half past seven o'clock and the cell was empty an hour later. His wife is suspected of having supplied him with a saw-file with which to cut the bars.

During the first part of the Cuban insurrection he fought with the insurgents receiving a wound in the foot.

LAST OF MRS. NACK.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Jan. 19.—Mrs. Nack left Long Island City jail this morning at seven o'clock for Auburn prison. The start was made for the Grand Central depot in a carriage which was followed by a mob anxious to see her. Just before leaving she said she was glad she was being punished for the crime she had committed and declared that she would be a model prisoner.

"GEN." BOOTH DEPARTS.

He Went to Canada—Failed to Annex
the Volunteers.

William Booth, "General" of the Salvation Army, bitterly disappointed that his effort at reuniting the Volunteers of America with the Army had failed, left this city yesterday. He was bound for Canada by way of Boston. It is his purpose to make a regular tour of inspection there. Booth-Tucker went with the General, and will accompany him, it is said, as far as the border. Everything was significantly quiet at West Fourteenth street headquarters. William Booth did not leave behind him his answers to any of the list of questions laid before him by the reporters on Sunday. At the headquarters of the Volunteers all was cheerfulness. Ballington Booth did not care to be interviewed. He was at liberty to say absolutely nothing about his interview with his father.—New York Sun.

He did send out word that he was much relieved that all dickerings was at an end, and that the friends of the Volunteers now had not the slightest right to fear for the permanent independence of the organization. "Did William Booth ask for Mrs. Ballington Booth or express any sympathy for her condition?" was a question frequently asked at the Volunteers' headquarters yesterday. When it received an answer, the answer was "no."

It has become known that not one word of the sort, spoken or written, came to Ballington Booth from his father.—New York Sun.

A HOMING PIGEON'S FLIGHT.

Escaped from Westfield and Landed
Aboard a Vessel.

Plainfield, N. J., Jan. 18.—William H. Winter, of Westfield, received word today from Capt. A. D. Conover, of the schooner Three Marys, at Philadelphia, that a carrier pigeon wearing a tag bearing Winter's name and address had alighted upon the deck of the vessel when it was about 500 miles out in the Atlantic Ocean. The bird was one of a pair of highly bred homing pigeons of the Belgium variety which Winter imported from Europe about three months ago. It escaped from the cage on Jan. 10, and flew directly eastward.

The capture of the bird 500 miles out in the Atlantic on the 11th shows, Mr. Winter says, that it was attempting to return to its native home in Belgium. When it landed upon the deck of the Three Marys the pigeon seemed somewhat exhausted and in want of food.

LOOKING TO TOMORROW.

Now that the holiday season is over and as a community we are getting down to the solid work of 1898 it is worth while to take stock of our needs as a town and see what steps are necessary to supply them.

There has been during the past year much gratifying growth of a substantial nature. The citizen should and evidently does take pride in that. It is encouraging to see and to know that the people of Greensboro think well and speak well of the town. It is the first essential of progress. Where there is no town pride there will not be for long anything to be proud of.

The first and most indispensable need of the town is unity in sentiment and endeavor among all those citizens who prefer growth to stagnation, advancement to retrogression. We have here some of the narrowness, the stinginess and stupidity, in public and in private matters, that every community must meet and combat. It is only necessary however to trample them resolutely under foot and pass on. They die hard but die surely. And there is no other way.

Out of this unity of purpose among those citizens who wish to advance the interests of the city in all worthy ways certain specific things may be reasonably expected. There are improvements in the way of paving, sewerage and lighting that cannot be longer deferred safely and conveniently and they will doubtless be attended to.

In the way of business enterprises efforts should be made to impress upon men with brains and capital the availability of Greensboro as a trade center. We need more manufacturing and wholesale establishments.

There is room here for a wholesale hat house. It is as good a field for an establishment of that sort as for a wholesale shoe house and it has been demonstrated that the latter can succeed here. Men of the same stripe can make a success of the former.

This is also an excellent location for an exclusively wholesale dry-goods house that will do both a cash and credit business. We have four wholesale grocery houses and the experience of the oldest probably is that the new ones have in nowise injured its business.

This too would be an excellent distributing point for a wholesale drug house that would wholesale exclusively.

The establishment of any or all of these enterprises would benefit those now engaged in the same line and those in every other line. Each would advertise the town as a wholesaling point and the others would reap their share of the benefits. The general merchant who buys his shoes from a wholesaler here will most probably buy his hats and his dry goods here if he can do so to equal advantage.

It rests with the citizens as to what the town shall do. What are you going to do about it?

And now that Judge Simonton has put in his say it appears that all the clouds have not been "wiped away" in the Stanly bond case.

Mr. Hancock, of Newbern, writes, with an oath, that the reports circulated concerning him are attempts to blackmail him and ruin his character. Why does not Mr. Hancock vindicate himself before the law? The Newbern Journal flung the charges in his very teeth and no libel suit has been heard of in that connection. Does Mr. Hancock not know that beautiful and symmetrical characters like his cannot be attacked and battered with impunity? A field white unto the harvest with damage suits awaits Mr. Hancock.

Blood will continue to bespatter the face of the moon, white winged peace will be out of a job and the brow of grim-visaged war will be corrugated with wrinkles of dire purpose. The chasm in the Booth family has not been bridged and the volunteers and salvationists will dwell apart. "General" William Booth has come and gone.

The English lion will submit to a good deal of tail-twisting if his neighbors find it amusing and demur not, but any intimation that British merchants are to be deprived of their "shent per shent" in foreign traffic fetches a growl of warning and of protest.

It is said that President Dole will help to revise the annexation treaty. If he will then devote his powers of revision to the Hawaiian islands annexation will be in better odor on this side of the water.

In the race for the federal judgeship Greensboro has the pleasant assurance that she has two chances at the plum and that in neither can it amiss. Good luck to her aspirants.

The annexation of Hawaii can hardly take place at this term of Congress unless the Senate sits overtime. Senator Morgan has only reached the second instalment of his speech.

It is strange that in the scuffle for arguments pro-annexationists should have overlooked the immense oratorical possibilities of the new condition, when Hawaii is a part of us.

If Ohio politicians would only quit stirring the dregs of the late malodorous campaign for a brief space, the respite would be grateful.

PLAIN TALK FROM ENGLAND.

She Will Fight if the Door of China is Closed to Her.

London, Jan. 17.—Speaking tonight at Swansea, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, Chancellor of the Exchequer, referred to China in language similar to that employed by Mr. Balfour a week ago at Manchester, when he pointed out that Great Britain had special claim to see that China's policy was not directed toward the discouragement of foreign trade, and declared that she would insist upon all nations enjoying equal trade advantages in China.

Sir Michael Hicks-Beach concluded his address by declaring that the government did not regard China as the place for conquest or colonization by any European or other power, but as one of the most hopeful centers of the future for the commerce of Great Britain and the world.

He said the government was absolutely determined at whatever cost, even, if necessary, by the use of force, to speak plainly, at the cost of war, that that door should not be shut to Great Britain. [Loud and prolonged cheers.]

He was convinced that in that policy the government would have the support and sympathy of the best public opinion of the civilized world, and also the sympathy and support of all parties in Parliament. The government hoped that by and through that sympathy it would be able to maintain in the future the great advantage in the far east that had been Great Britain's in the past.—N. Y. Sun.

PARKMORE'S NARROW ESCAPE.

No Man Aboard Her Expected Ever to See Land Again.

St. John's, N. F., Jan. 17.—The steamer Parkmore, from Avonmouth for Boston, put into this port today badly disabled. She met the hurricane weather, and the seas stove in the portholes. The water flooded the hold, tore away the hatches, and caused the ship to list thirty degrees to starboard. The bunker coal shifted and pounded the ship so badly it was feared she would founder. For four days the crew worked without rest bailing water and trimming the coal to right the ship. They barricaded the broken portholes with boards and cement. During this time the ship was almost helpless and seas swept over the decks, carrying away all the deck gear, tearing up a whole section of the rail and bulwarks. Then the starboard boiler got out of order, and the water gained despite all efforts until it reached the footplates in the engine room, when the boiler was repaired and reduced the water again. During this period none of the crew ever expected to see land again.

Lifeboats were provisioned ready to launch if the pumps gave out. No body aboard the ship took off his clothes or ate a warm meal. Many of the crew were frostbitten and all were worn out by incessant labor. On Saturday the gale abated. The ship tried to reach this port but failed to make the harbor before dark. Then she lay to until morning. During the night a severe snowstorm arose and drove her to sea. She nearly foundered yesterday, but made her way into port today. It is thought some of her plates have started. She is still leaking badly.

MRS. BRUNSMAN'S VICTIMS.

Made Lots of Money by Her Matrimonial Advertisements.

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 17.—A slender woman went through a pile of letters at Postoffice Inspector Dill's office this morning and told how foolish the writers had been in sending her money and gifts.
Her name is Mrs. Lulu Brunman, alias Grace Lewis, alias Lulu Raines, a confidence woman, who was brought here from Chicago last night on the charge of using the mails to defraud. Her husband is under arrest in Chicago. He married her after she left her first husband, Walter Raines, a Texas photographer, whom she married when she was 13 years old.
"Six months," agoshesays, "I advertised in a Chicago matrimonial paper like this:
'Wanted, a husband, by a handsome widow with $12,000.'
"Since then I have cleared $8,000 in cash and $3,000 worth of jewelry. My first answers were from Sherman and John Hunter, of Savannah, Mo. I got horses, a bicycle and $190 from them.
"Jack Craig, a traveler living at 44 North Wells street, Chicago, was my next victim. I got $600 in cash and $400 in presents from him.
"Philip Housan, a soldier at Fort Walla Walla, Wash., sent me a diamond bracelet, 4 diamond rings and a set of fine ear rings, and was so impressed that he sent his mother and sister to visit me. I entertained them four days and had a picnic.
"Then I corresponded with Lew Jordan, a railroad passenger agent at 445 Fort street, Detroit, Mich. Albert Sloan, of Cripple Creek, Col., was among my admirers. 'I send you $5,' he wrote. 'It is my house rent, but that don't matter. I am married and if you will pay for a divorce I will get it.'
"Eugene Sloan, of Laredo, Texas, sent me a ring, but got foxy and I froze him out.
"Jack Stanley, a young collegian of Pittsburg, wrote that he was 'charming Jack,' and wanted me to send him $5, which I didn't do."
The authorities have 150 unopened letters addressed to her.

HAD MONEY TO BURN.

Fisher Bought Cigarettes and Gave Them to Street Loungers.

Hazleton, Pa., Jan. 18.—Conrad Fisher, formerly a well-to-do business man here, has been failing lately. This morning he went to the Markle Bank, where he had an account, and drew several hundred dollars. On coming out of the bank building he met a little German band that was trotting away for dear life. He gave the astonished leader $20 and ordered him to play some tunes for his private amusement. The band played all the melodies in its repertoire and the suffering citizens called upon the police for protection. After this Fisher went to a cigar store and bought several hundred boxes of cigarettes, which he distributed among the street loungers. Then he was captured by his friends and removed to an asylum in Philadelphia.

SIMONTON'S NEW INJUNCTION.

Interfers in The Payment of Interest on Stanley's Bonds.

Charlotte, Jan. 18.—United States Judge Simonton today signed an order restraining the commissioners of Stanley county, N. C., from preventing the treasurer of said county, who has the funds duly collected, paying the interest on the railroad bonds; the validity of which was involved in the recent decision of the State Supreme Court. The motion for the order was made on behalf of Caler & Co., New York bankers. The question of the validity of these bonds will doubtless go to the Supreme Court of the United States for final determination.—Raleigh Post

PRESIDENT DOLE ARRIVES.

Hawaii's Chief Executive and Wife Aboard the Steamship Peru.

San Francisco, Jan. 17.—The steamship Peru from Hong-Kong and Yokohama via Honolulu, passed in Golden Gate tonight, and is anchored in the stream. The quarantine officer has not inspected her, and no one has been allowed to go on board.

Although the night is stormy and the bay is rough, a small boat put out at 10 p. m. to the Peru, and President Dole, of Hawaii, was hailed from the deck. President Dole and Mrs. Dole are anxious to get ashore and proceed with all possible haste to Washington. It is doubtful, however, if they will be allowed to land tonight.

A Difficulty.

"I'm sorry about this idea of compelling us to deliver speeches before they are handed in to be printed in the Record," remarked the member of Congress.

"What difference does it make?" "It confuses my stenographer about marking in the applause,"—Washington Star.

CLOTHING, HATS AND FURNISHINGS.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Lee Cartland returned to High Point today.

Some new building operations are going on out on Pearson street.

J. E. Haithcock, of Hickory, is visiting his brother, Mr. S. S. Haithcock on Pearson street.

The engine pulling the mail train from Mt. Airy today came in with "ice tags" hanging from the front of the boiler. How's that?

A special drive in ladies' and gents' fine shoes is going on now and for the next two weeks at Shrier's exclusive shoe store. Read new ad.

If bread is the staff of life, no one will dispute the fact that the "staff" should be made of the very best material to be had. Read the large and attractive ad of the Julian Milling company on this page.

In the penny ads of this paper you can find an almost unparalleled offer of one hundred sewing machines to be given away. The offer is made by the Singer company through its agent Mr. A. L. Groves at the company's office, 122 East Market street.

We take pleasure in calling your attention to the new ad on editorial page of the up-to-date and hustling sewing machine and bicycle dealers, Messrs. Wingate Bros. They offer a premium of $25 cash for the oldest sewing machine in Guilford county.

Howard Gardner, the corner drug-store man, has received and placed in a window of his store a large sign of the fisherman carrying a codfish on his back. It is attracting a good deal of attention, and as an advertisement is second only to an ad. in The Telegram.

Messrs. Gillis and Black, from Fayetteville, who have a contract for grading on the Mocksville & Mooresville extension of the Southern, came up last night through the country with eight mules. The mules were loaded on the noon train here today and carried to the scene of work.

Wang is Coming.

"Wang," in all its magnificence, absolutely new and accurate costumes and scenery, is coming. It will be at the Academy of Music on Saturday, January 29th; one night only.

"Wang" is now on its final tour, and this engagement will positively be the only visit of that famous opera in our city. The part of "Wang," the regent of Siam, could hardly be better filled than by Dan Packard, who achieved great success in that part last season.

Ten of the prettiest girls in "Wang" introduce a chorus of banjos that arouses great enthusiasm nightly. These clever girls represent the daughters of the French consul at Bangkok, Siam, and their banjos are twanged for the entertainment of envoys from the King of Burmah.

Seats now on sale at Gardner's drug store. Admission, 50c., 75c. and $1.

Dr. Jonathan N. Worth Here.

The name of the above gentleman is as well known, perhaps, throughout North Carolina as any living man. He was for years the faithful and efficient state treasurer, retiring at his own request when Donald W. Bain was elected in 1888. Since then Dr. Worth has lived quietly at his home in Asheboro. He is getting quite old, but appears in good health.

In company with Mrs. A. C. McAlister, Dr. Worth arrived in the city at noon today and is stopping with Mr. A. W. McAlister. The good doctor has many friends in Greensboro, who will be glad to see him.

THEY WENT TO THE FIRE.

Walter Benbow's Mill Was Burned Last Night.

The grist mill of Walter Benbow about two and a half miles northwest of the city was burned last night between ten and twelve o'clock. The mill was run part of the time by water, being propelled by an old-fashioned overshot wheel, but in case of the small stream refusing to furnish sufficient water an engine was provided to run the machinery. It is from this that the fire is supposed to have originated.

The miller lost about four months' toll, and Mr. O. C. Wheeler lost between fifty and seventy-five bushels of wheat. The loss of the mill property is not known, and there was no insurance.

The Eagle Dramatic Club were just concluding a rehearsal of "Cherry," which is to be given the 27th for the benefit of the fire company, when one of the members saw the light from the burning mill, and, true to his instincts as a fireman, called to the other members to "Let's go to the fire." They reached there in time, walking the distance in a few minutes, to turn on the water and set the old water wheel to turning, thus saving it from the flames.

MORE ROAD WORK.

And it is Being Done Along the Right Lines.

The public road engineer and surveyor for Guilford county, Prof. J. M. Bandy, went down to the neighborhood of Alamance church this morning to survey, locate and lay off roads to be graded by the county convict force. Prof. Bandy is "the right man in the right place," has done and is still doing valuable service in the matter of road improvement.

The biggest thing that can be done for Guilford county, and for Greensboro, for that matter, is to build and macadamize the public roads of the county. It has already been shown through The Telegram that it is cheaper to work the convicts on the roads than it is to let them lie in jail. This being so, the force should be kept busy. And it is hardly possible to estimate the saving which would accrue to the farmers in marketing their products if the roads were graded and macadamized. At least twice as many pounds could be hauled at a load, wagons would be easier to keep in repair, and trips could be made more quickly.

We are glad to see that the bad bit of road between Little Buffalo creek and the C. F. & Y. V. railroad will soon be "bad no more." Attention to the work at this place has already been mentioned several times in The Telegram.

Let the good work continue.

The Outfit Complete.

The Southside Hose Company is to be congratulated on their new and handsome equipment. Mention was recently made in The Telegram of the new and beautiful hose wagon, which is the finest in the State, and of the new building being erected, which is now about complete.

And yesterday we told of the negotiations then going on for the purchase of a fine iron-grey horse. We are glad to announce today that the deal was made and the Southside boys are now the proud possessors of a complete outfit, second to none in beauty and up-to-date in fire-fighting apparatus. The Telegram wants to congratulate you, boys. Shake?

It Will be Moved.

The machinery of the ice plant near the Southern, which was recently sold to Mr. D. H. King, of Winston, will be moved to that place, and operated in connection with Mr. King's ice factory there. There has been some speculation as to what disposition would be made of this property. It was claimed by some that the plant would not be moved, and fears were entertained that this meant the new depot would not be built. But the news comes straight that the outfit will soon be taken away.

Footballists Elect Officers.

The members of Greensboro's football team met yesterday and elected John S. Michaux, manager, and Garland Daniel captain for the year of 1898.

Both are excellent selections. They also rigged themselves up in war togs and had their pictures taken.

The Groom Shows Up.

Parker, the groom, who went into seclusion for a brief while after being summarily deprived of his bride, has shown up and claimed her. He has taken her away from the parental roof and all will perhaps come right, as is usual in such cases.

Later:—Parker has been arrested and tried before Squire Eckel late this afternoon on a charge of perjury and bound over to court in a bond of $200 which he gave.

calls your attention to a handsome line of dress skirts which they have reduced from $5 and $6 to $3.50, made of all wool storm serge and full rustle lining. Also handsome novelty goods.

Our line of coats is somewhat broken in sizes and all we have on hand we propose to close out regardless of cost. As coats change so much in style, if we wait to see what next season brings forth we may get left, so have decided to make great sacrifices.

Come and take a good look at our Underwear. Have a nice line of Corset Covers from 12 1-2c for a good cambric waist, and a nice Hamburg trimmed front and back for 25c. Our gowns that were $1 we have marked 75c; good cambric with Hamburg trimming in Hubbard and Empire style. The skirts are in plain and umbrella ruffles, handsomely trimmed and ranging in price from 75c to $1. A nice line of Drawers from 25c to $1.25.
